Enjoy TV audio in the best quality

Wireless TV Headphones with 2.4 GHz Radio Technology from Hama

Whether it's the news, your favorite TV show, or a movie night—with TV headphones, you can enjoy the TV audio at your own preferred volume. Hama's audio lineup includes a pair of wireless TV headphones designed to ensure a relaxing TV viewing experience. This solution is designed for anyone who wants to enjoy movies, TV shows, or music without disturbing others. The focus is on high comfort, a stable wireless connection, and clear, balanced sound.

Once connected to the charging station, the TV headphones automatically connect to the TV via 2.4-GHz wireless technology. The latency-free transmission ensures that the picture and sound remain perfectly synchronized at all times. In addition, the headphones can be connected to a smartphone via Bluetooth, allowing you to enjoy music or other audio content on the go and wirelessly.

Comfort Meets Powerful TV Sound

For a pleasant listening experience, the closed-back design and passive noise cancellation reduce distracting external noise. Soft ear cushions and a padded, individually adjustable headband ensure a high level of comfort even during extended use. The integrated control pad allows
